Downtown Montgomery

The downtown area includes many well-attended sporting venues including the Biscuits minor league baseball team, Alabama State University and numerous high school events.

Strong daytime employment base in downtown Montgomery with over 24,000 employees plus an additional 16,000 within a five-minute drive from the center of the Central Business District supplement the evening and weekend residential consumer base with an additional $28 million in expenditure.

Montgomery's strength as a major center of government, military and education services provides a stable base of white-collar employment.

Downtown Montgomery has an estimated 23,000 office workers, 62% of whom go shopping during the workday. The average office worker also eats lunch at a restaurant three out of five days each week, spending $8.60 per meal. On average, each worker can support a combined 30 square feet of retail and restaurant space.

Downtown supports over 7,000 hotel rooms (city-wide), a 140,000 square foot convention center, a 1,800 square foot performing arts center and contains over 30,000 seats between two stadiums and an amphitheater.

Maxwell Airforce Base

Located just over two miles from 79 Commerce, Maxwell-Gunter serves a large population made up of over 12,500 active duty guard and reserve, family members, civilians, contractors and retirees. In addition, more than 20,000 students attend Air University schools each year.

The Maxwell-Gunter facility has a population of about 2,500 including families, civilians and contractors. The base has 41 temporary lodging buildings with about 2,300 rooms.
