VOTED AMONG TOP 15 PLACES TO LIVE IN ALABAMA

NICHE

Trussville is consistently recognized as one of the best places to live in Alabama — and that quality of life translates directly into business opportunity. Trussville stands out for its top-performing public schools, high household incomes, and family-friendly atmosphere. With a population of over 27,000 and a median household income well above state averages, the community offers strong consumer purchasing power and long-term residential stability. Located just outside Birmingham yet maintaining its distinct small-town charm, Downtown Trussville provides the ideal setting for businesses seeking an affluent customer base, steady foot traffic, and a community proud to shop and dine locally.
